

Nexans receives top-rankings at the Institutional Investor 2021 All-Europe Executive Team Survey

PRESS RELEASE

Paris, September 9, 2021 – Nexans has received top-rankings including Small & Midcap Best CEO for Christopher Guérin, Best CFO for Jean-Christophe Juillard, second Best Investor Relations Professional for Aurélia Baudey-Vignaud as well as Best Investor Relations Program and Best Analyst Day within Capital Goods in the Institutional Investor's 2021 All-Europe Executive Team seventeenth annual survey.

The Group is recognized as Most Honored Company within Small & Midcap Capital Goods category.

Within Overall Capital Goods category, the Group also reached top-rankings as third Most Honored Company, second Best CEO, Best CFO, third Best Investor Relations Professional and second Best Analyst Day by investors.

The awards of the Institutional Investor survey are the acknowledgment by the financial community on the clarity and consistency of Nexans' strategic ambitions as well as the ability of the Group to engage with investors and meet expectations.

The annual Institutional Investor survey reflects the opinions from 1,536 investment professionals, buy-side analysts, money managers and sell-side researchers from 644 financial services firms. All votes are weighted by rating and attributes within each category were aggregated to create the CEO, CFO, IR Professional, IR Program, ESG and Analyst Day rankings. The overall rankings in each of the categories are based on combined buy- and sell-side votes. Europe Small & Mid-cap Executive Team ranking recognized companies with less than $10 billion in market capitalization.

All above Nexans rankings are within Capital Goods.
